

Pasadena Buddhist Women's Association
2022 Membership Invitation and Form

The Pasadena Buddhist Women's Association (BWA) is a service organization that supports the activities and functions of the Pasadena Buddhist Temple and encourages fellowship among women of ALL ages. With the current COVID situation our activities have been limited, but our service to the temple and our aging sangha will continue.

We invite you to (re-)join this organization in 2022, especially if your child is involved in our youth groups (Dharma School, Sangha Teens or Junior Young Buddhist Association). The BWA is usually involved in the same activities as the children. BWA membership also includes free registration to the Southern District Buddhist Women's League, Federation of Buddhist Women's Association and Buddhist Churches of America conferences and workshops.

Membership is $25.00 per year. If you decide that you would like to join, please complete the form below and Mail it to PBT – BWA, 1993 Glen Avenue, Pasadena 91103 (or leave it in the temple office).

We hope you will consider membership. We need women who can make time to help others and actively practice dana ("selfless giving") through our activities.

In Gassho,
