

Kagami-Mochi

(designed by kamikey origami)

Materials

- 1 - 6" x 6" white origami paper (kami)
- 1 - 2" x 2" orange paper
- green paper for leaf
- red string or yarn
- pencil (to make leaf shape)
- scissors
- glue or glue stick

1. Fold one corner to the opposite corner to make a horizontal crease. Unfold.
2. Fold the bottom left edge to the center crease.
3. Repeat on the top by folding the top left edge to the center crease.
4. This is now a "kite" shape.
5. Flip over.
6. Position with the narrow part at the bottom.

7

7. Fold the bottom point up to the top point.
8. Flip over with the flat edge at the bottom.
9. Fold the bottom right edge to the center vertical crease.
10. Repeat on the left side by folding the bottom left edge to the center vertical crease.
11. Flip over.

12. Open the left and right sides of the top layer only and pull out and towards you.
13. Flatten into the shape shown.
14. Flip over and rotate 90° as shown.

13

15. On the bottom part, fold from the diagonal crease on the left aligning the point along the edge of the paper.
16. Rotate 180° and repeat on the other side.
17. Rotate 90° so the smaller part is at the bottom.
18. Fold the bottom point up to align with the point as shown.

19. On the bottom right corner, fold from the diagonal crease on the left to the edge of the paper.

20

20. Repeat on the bottom left corner.
21. Rotate 180° and fold the bottom point up to meet the other point as shown.
22. To shape the sides, make a vertical fold starting where the top layer meets the edge of the bottom layer. There is no other landmark.
23. Repeat on both sides.
24. Flip over and the mochi is done.

1. For the mikan (tangerine), start with the white side up (if you are using paper that is white on one side and orange on the other).
2. Fold one corner to the opposite corner to make a horizontal crease. Unfold.

3

3. Rotate 90° and fold the other two corners together to make another horizontal crease. Unfold.
4. Fold each of the four corners into the center.
5. Without unfolding, fold two opposite corners into the center.
6. For the remaining two corners, make a vertical fold to taste to round the sides of the mikan.

7. Flip over and the mikan is done.
8. Cut a leaf out of green paper.
9. Glue the pieces together.
10. Tie a red string around the mochi.
11. You are done.
